

Question and Answer

Directions: Reflect and write a brief paragraph response. Snail mail or fax your response to your learning facilitator.

1. How do you currently know that your staff development activities are effective?

2. How do you envision your work as a staff developer evolving if designers of adult learning activities are to be accountable for results?

3. Given your current level of expertise as a designer, what do you hope to gain from participating in this course?

