Strand A: Reading

Standard 1: The student uses the reading process effectively.

Benchmark LA.A.1.3.1: The student uses background knowledge of the subject and text structure knowledge to make complex predictions of content, purpose, and organization of the reading selection.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. predicts ideas or events that may take place in the text, gives rationale for predictions, and confirms and discusses predictions as the story progresses.
2. uses prereading strategies before reading (for example, a KWL or skimming text headings, bold type, and other text features).
3. makes predictions about purpose and organization using background knowledge and text structure knowledge.
4. reads and predicts from graphic representations (for example, illustrations, diagrams, graphs, maps).

Seventh
1. extends and applies previously learned prereading knowledge and skills of the sixth grade with increasingly complex reading selections and assignments and tasks.

Eighth
1. refines and applies previously learned prereading knowledge and skills of the seventh grade with increasingly complex reading texts and assignments and tasks.

Benchmark LA.A.1.3.2: The student uses a variety of strategies to analyze words and text, draw conclusions, use context and word structure clues, and recognize organizational patterns.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. uses context and word structure clues to interpret words and ideas in text.
2. makes inferences and generalizations about what is read.
Grade Level Expectations

Language Arts
Grades 6-8

3. uses strategies such as graphic organizers and note-making to clarify meaning and to illustrate organizational pattern of texts.

Seventh
1. uses context and word structure clues to interpret words and ideas in text.
2. makes inferences and generalizations about what is read.
3. uses strategies such as graphic organizers and note-making to clarify meaning and to illustrate organizational patterns.
4. compares and contrasts similar information contained in different text selections.

Eighth
1. extends previously learned knowledge and skills of the seventh grade with increasingly complex reading selections and assignments and tasks (for example, using context and word structure, making inferences and generalizations, using graphic organizers and note-making, comparing and contrasting).

Benchmark LA.A.1.3.3: The student demonstrates consistent and effective use of interpersonal and academic vocabularies in reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

Grade Level Expectations

The student:

Sixth
1. identifies word parts such as prefixes, suffixes, and root words.
2. uses word origins as a strategy in understanding historical influences on word meanings.
3. selects appropriate meaning for a word according to context.
4. analyzes word relationships such as analogies.
5. distinguishes denotative and connotative meanings of words.
6. learns new words in a consistent manner (for example, through reading and writing activities).

Seventh
1. extends the vocabulary-building expectations of the sixth grade using seventh grade or higher level vocabulary.
Eighth
1. extends the vocabulary-building expectations of the seventh grade using eighth grade or higher level vocabulary.

Benchmark LA.A.1.3.4: The student uses strategies to clarify meaning, such as rereading, note taking, summarizing, outlining, and writing a grade level-appropriate report.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. monitors own comprehension and makes modifications when understanding breaks down by rereading a portion aloud or silently.
2. restates text by note making or summarizing.
3. examines other sources to clarify meaning (for example, encyclopedia, web site, or expert).
4. uses a graphic organizer to clarify meaning of text.

Seventh
1. monitors own comprehension and makes modifications when understanding breaks down by rereading a portion aloud or silently.
2. restates or paraphrases text by summarizing.
3. uses the text’s structure or progression of ideas) to locate and recall information (for example, cause and effect, chronology).
4. analyzes information from one textual source to create a report.

Eighth
1. refines previously learned knowledge and skills of the seventh grade with increasingly complex reading texts and assignments and tasks (for example, monitoring comprehension, modifying understanding, summarizing, using text structure for recall, analyzing information to create a report).
Standard 2: The student constructs meaning from a wide range of texts.

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.1: The student determines the main idea or essential message in a text and identifies relevant details and facts and patterns of organization.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. determines a text’s major ideas and how those ideas are supported with details.
2. draws inferences and supports them with text evidence and experience (for example, conclusions or generalizations).
3. paraphrases and summarizes text to recall, inform, or organize ideas.
4. analyzes ways writers organize and present ideas (for example, through chronology, comparison-contrast, cause-effect).

Seventh
1. extends the expectations of the sixth grade with increasingly complex reading texts and assignments and tasks (for example, main ideas, supporting details, inferences, summarizing, analysis of organization and presentation of ideas).

Eighth
1. refines previously learned knowledge and skills of the seventh grade with increasingly complex reading texts and assignments and tasks (for example, main ideas, supporting details, inferences, summarizing, analysis of organization and presentation of ideas).

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.2: The student identifies the author’s purpose and/or point of view in a variety of texts and uses the information to construct meaning.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. discusses the meaning and role of point of view in a variety of texts.
2. states the author’s purpose and relates it to specific details from the text.

Seventh
1. understands ways the author’s perspective or point of view affects a text.
2. states the author’s purpose and relates it to specific details from the text.

Eighth

3. understands ways the author’s perspective or point of view affects a text.

1. states the author’s purpose and relates it to specific statements from text.

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.3: The student recognizes logical, ethical, and emotional appeals in texts.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth

1. recognizes persuasive techniques in text.

Seventh

1. identifies persuasive and propaganda techniques in text.

2. delineates the strengths and weaknesses of an argument in persuasive text.

3. recognizes ethical and unethical statements in text.

Eighth

1. knows persuasive and propaganda techniques in text.

2. delineates the strengths and weaknesses of an argument in persuasive text.

3. knows the difference between logical and illogical, and ethical and unethical statements in a piece of text.

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.4: The student uses a variety of reading materials to develop personal preferences in reading.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth

1. develops personal reading preferences through exploring a variety of prose, poetry and nonfiction.
Sunshine State Standards

Grades 6-8

Seventh
1. develops and expands personal reading preferences through exploring a variety of prose, poetry and nonfiction.

Eighth
1. develops and expands personal reading preferences through exploring a variety of prose, poetry and nonfiction.

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.5: The student locates, organizes, and interprets written information for a variety of purposes, including classroom research, collaborative decision making, and performing a school or real-world task.

Grade level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. forms and revises questions for investigations (including but not limited to questions arising from readings).
2. uses print and electronic sources to locate books, documents, and articles.
3. organizes and interprets information from a variety of sources for a school or real-world task.

Seventh
1. extends previously learned knowledge and skills of the sixth grade with increasingly complex texts and assignments and tasks (for example, forming questions for readings, using print and electronic sources to locate information, organizing information from a variety of sources for real-world tasks).

Eighth
1. refines previously learned knowledge and skills of the seventh grade with increasingly complex texts and assignments and tasks (for example, forming questions for readings, using print and electronic sources to locate information, organizing information from a variety of sources for real-world tasks).
Benchmark LA.A.2.3.6: The student uses a variety of reference materials, including indexes, magazines, newspapers, and journals, and tools, including card catalogs and computer catalogs, to gather information for research topics.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. chooses reference materials appropriate to research purpose.
2. uses multiple sources to locate information relevant to research questions (including electronic texts, experts, print resources).

Seventh
1. gathers information from a variety of sources, including primary sources (for example, magazines and newspapers).
2. evaluates and uses information from a variety of sources (including primary sources) when researching content area topics.

Eighth
1. gathers information from a variety of sources, including primary sources.
2. evaluates and uses information from a variety of sources when researching content area topics (including but not limited to primary sources).

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.7: The student synthesizes and separates collected information into useful components using a variety of techniques, such as source cards, note cards, spreadsheets, and outlines.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. separates collected information into useful components using a variety of techniques.
2. synthesizes collected information using a matrix or other graphic organizer.

Seventh
1. classifies and records information (for example, using note cards, data files).
2. compiles information using graphic organizers (for example, timelines, circle diagrams).
3. organizes and summarizes information using a format (for example, note cards).

Eighth
1. classifies and records information (for example, using note cards, data files).
2. compiles information using an organizer (for example, a spreadsheet).
3. compares and contrasts elements within or across texts.
4. records bibliographic information using a format such as source cards.

Benchmark LA.A.2.3.8: The student checks the validity and accuracy of information obtained from research, in such ways as differentiating fact and opinion, identifying strong vs. weak arguments, recognizing that personal values influence the conclusions an author draws.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. distinguishes between fact and opinion.
2. examines texts for identification of strong versus weak arguments.
3. uses resources, such as expert opinion, to check the validity of information obtained from research.
4. identifies and examines the influence of personal values on the conclusions an author draws.

Seventh
1. cites, examines, and discusses the use of and differences between fact and opinion within a text.
2. knows differences between strong versus weak arguments and relevant and irrelevant information in reading selections.
3. understands the use of comparison and contrast in a text.
4. understands the influence of personal values on the conclusions an author draws.

Eighth
1. extends previously learned knowledge and skills of the seventh grade with increasingly complex texts and assignments and tasks (for example, differences between fact and opinion, strong versus weak arguments, relevant and irrelevant information, comparison and contrast, influence of personal values).
Strand B: Writing
Standard 1: The student uses writing processes effectively.

Benchmark LA.B.1.3.1: The student organizes information before writing according to the type and purpose of writing.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. knows possible prewriting strategies for different writing tasks.
2. uses a prewriting strategy suitable for the task (for example, brainstorming, using a graphic organizer, listing ideas).
3. experiments with various prewriting strategies to accommodate individual learning style.

Seventh
1. knows possible prewriting strategies for different writing tasks.
2. uses a prewriting strategy suitable for the task (for example, brainstorming, using a graphic organizer, listing ideas).
3. experiments with various prewriting strategies to accommodate individual learning style.

Eighth
1. knows possible prewriting strategies for different writing tasks.
2. uses a prewriting strategy suitable for the task (for example, brainstorming, using a graphic organizer, listing ideas).
3. experiments with various prewriting strategies to accommodate individual learning style.
Benchmark LA.B.1.3.2: The student drafts and revises writing that
• is focused, purposeful, and reflects insight into the writing situation;
• conveys a sense of completeness and wholeness with adherence to the main idea;
• has an organizational pattern that provide for a logical progression of ideas;
• has support that is substantial, specific, relevant, concrete, and/or illustrative;
• demonstrates a commitment to and an involvement with the subject;
• has clarity in presentation of ideas;
• uses creative writing strategies appropriate to the purpose of the paper;
• demonstrates a command of language (word choice) with freshness of expression;
• has varied sentence structure and sentences that are complete except when fragments are used purposefully; and
• has few, if any, convention errors in mechanics, usage, punctuation.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. focuses on a central idea or topic (for example, excluding loosely related, extraneous, or repetitious information).
2. uses an appropriate organizational pattern having a beginning, middle, end and transitional devices.
3. demonstrates a commitment to and an involvement with the subject that engages the reader.
4. demonstrates a command of the language including precise word choice and use of appropriate figurative language.
5. uses an effective organizational pattern and substantial support to achieve a sense of completeness or wholeness (for example, considering audience, sequencing events, choosing effective words; using specific details to clarify meaning).
6. proofreads writing to correct convention errors in mechanics, usage, and punctuation, using dictionaries, handbooks, and other resources, including teacher or peers, as appropriate.
7. revises draft to further develop a piece of writing by adding, deleting, and rearranging ideas and details.

Seventh
1. focuses on a central idea or topic (for example, excluding loosely related, extraneous, or repetitious information).
2. uses devices to develop relationships among ideas (for example, transitional devices; paragraphs that show a change in time, idea, or place; cause-and-effect relationships).

3. uses supporting ideas, details, and facts from a variety of sources to develop and elaborate topic.

4. demonstrates a commitment to and an involvement with the subject that engages the reader.

5. demonstrates a command of the language (including but not limited to precise word choice, appropriate figurative language).

6. uses an effective organizational pattern and substantial support to achieve a sense of completeness or wholeness (for example, considering audience, sequencing events, choosing effective words; using specific details to clarify meaning).

7. proofreads writing to correct convention errors in mechanics, usage, and punctuation, using dictionaries, handbooks, and other resources, including teacher or peers, as appropriate.

8. analyzes and revises draft to further develop a piece of writing by adding or deleting details and explanations; clarifying difficult passages; and rearranging words, sentences, and paragraphs to improve meaning.

Eighth

1. focuses on a central ideas or topic (for example, excluding loosely related, extraneous, or repetitious information).

2. uses devices to develop relationships among ideas (for example, transitional devices; paragraphs that show a change in time, idea, or place; cause-and-effect relationships).

3. uses supporting ideas, details, and facts from a variety of sources to develop and elaborate topic.

7. proofreads writing to correct convention errors in mechanics, usage, and punctuation, using dictionaries, handbooks, and other resources, including teacher or peers, as appropriate.

8. analyzes and revises draft to further develop a piece of writing by adding or deleting details and explanations; clarifying difficult passages; and rearranging words, sentences, and paragraphs to improve meaning.
Benchmark LA.B.1.3.3: The student produces final documents that have been edited for
- correct spelling;
- correct punctuation, including commas, colons, and semicolons;
- correct capitalization;
- effective sentence structure
- correct common usage, including subject/verb agreement, common noun/pronoun agreement, common possessive forms, and with a variety of sentence structure, including parallel structure; and
- correct formatting.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. uses resources such as dictionary and thesaurus to confirm spelling.
2. uses conventions of punctuation (including but not limited to commas, colons, semicolon, quotation marks, apostrophes).
3. uses conventions of capitalization (including but not limited to the names of organizations, nationalities, races, languages, religions).
4. uses various parts of speech correctly in written work (including but not limited to subject and verb agreement, common noun and pronoun agreement, possessive forms, the comparative and superlative of adjectives and adverbs).
5. uses a variety of sentence structures (including but not limited to parallel structure).
6. uses creative writing strategies appropriate to the format (for example, using appropriate voice; using descriptive language to clarify ideas and create vivid images; using elements of style, such as appropriate tone).

Seventh
1. uses resources such as dictionary and thesaurus to confirm spelling.
2. uses conventions of punctuation (including but not limited to commas, colons, semicolon, quotation marks, apostrophes).
3. uses conventions of capitalization (including but not limited to the names of organizations, nationalities, races, languages, religions).
4. uses various parts of speech correctly in written work (including but not limited to subject and verb agreement, common noun and pronoun agreement, possessive forms, the comparative and superlative of adjectives and adverbs).

5. uses a variety of sentence structures (including but not limited to parallel structure, compound and complex sentences).

6. uses a variety of formatting (including but not limited to the use of electronic technology).

7. uses creative writing strategies appropriate to the format (for example, using appropriate voice; using descriptive language to clarify ideas and create vivid images; using elements of style, such as appropriate tone).

Eighth

1. uses resources such as dictionary and thesaurus to confirm spelling.

2. uses conventions of punctuation (including but not limited to commas, colons, semicolon, quotation marks, apostrophes).

3. uses conventions of capitalization (including but not limited to the names of organizations, nationalities, races, languages, religions).

4. uses various parts of speech correctly in written work (including but not limited to subject and verb agreement, common noun and pronoun agreement, possessive forms, the comparative and superlative of adjectives and adverbs).

5. uses a variety of sentence structures including parallel structure, compound and complex sentences.

6. uses a variety of formatting (including but not limited to the use of electronic technology).

7. uses creative writing strategies appropriate to the format (for example, using appropriate voice; using descriptive language to clarify ideas and create vivid images; using elements of style, such as appropriate tone).
Standard 2: The student writes to communicate ideas and information effectively.

Benchmark LA.B.2.3.1: The student writes text, notes, outlines, comments, and observations that demonstrate comprehension of content and experiences from a variety of media.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. writes notes, outlines, comments, and observations that reflect comprehension of sixth grade level or higher content from a variety of media.

Seventh
1. writes notes, outlines, comments, and observations that reflect comprehension of seventh grade level or higher content from a variety of media.

Eighth
1. writes notes, outlines, comments, and observations that reflect comprehension of eighth grade level or higher content from a variety of media.

Benchmark LA.B.2.3.2: The student organizes information using alphabetical, chronological, and numerical systems.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. logically sequences information using alphabetical, chronological, and numerical systems.

Seventh
1. logically sequences information using alphabetical, chronological, and numerical systems.

Eighth
1. logically sequences information using alphabetical, chronological, and numerical systems.
Benchmark LA.B.2.3.3: The student selects and uses appropriate formats for writing, including narrative, persuasive, and expository formats, according to the intended audience, purpose, and occasion.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

 Sixth
1. selects and uses a format for writing which addresses the audience, purpose, and occasion (including but not limited to narrative, persuasive, expository).

 Seventh
1. selects and uses a format for writing which addresses the audience, purpose, and occasion (including but not limited to narrative, persuasive, expository)

 Eighth
1. selects and uses a format for writing which addresses the audience, purpose, and occasion (including but not limited to narrative, persuasive, expository).

Benchmark LA.B.2.3.4: The student uses electronic technology including databases and software to gather information and communicate new knowledge.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

 Sixth
1. uses electronic technology appropriate to writing tasks (including but not limited to the Internet, databases and software) to create, revise, retrieve, and verify information.

 Seventh
1. uses electronic technology appropriate to writing tasks (including but not limited to the Internet, databases and software) to create, revise, retrieve, and verify information.

 Eighth
1. uses electronic technology appropriate to writing tasks (including but not limited to the Internet, databases and software) to create, revise, retrieve, and verify information.
Strand C: Listening, Viewing, and Speaking

Standard 1: The student uses listening strategies effectively.

Benchmark LA.C.1.3.1: The student listens and uses information gained for a variety of purposes, such as gaining information from interviews, following directions, and pursuing a personal interest.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. follows verbal directions.
2. paraphrases information.
3. expands and enhances personal interest through listening.

Seventh
1. follows verbal directions.
2. formulates questions and conducts an interview.
3. paraphrases information.
4. expands and enhances personal interest through listening.

Eighth
1. follows verbal directions.
2. formulates questions and conducts an interview.
3. paraphrases information.
4. expands and enhances personal interest through listening.

Benchmark LA.C.1.3.2: The student selects and listens to readings of fiction, drama, nonfiction, and informational presentations according to personal preferences.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. listens to fiction, drama, nonfiction, and informational presentations based on personal preferences.

Seventh
1. listens to fiction, drama, nonfiction, and informational presentations based on personal preferences.

Eighth
1. listens to fiction, drama, nonfiction, and informational presentations based on personal preferences.

Benchmark LA.C.1.3.3: The student acknowledges the feelings and messages sent in a conversation.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. recognizes verbal and nonverbal cues and responds appropriately.

Seventh.
2. recognizes verbal and nonverbal cues and responds appropriately.

Eighth
2. recognizes verbal and nonverbal cues and responds appropriately.

Benchmark LA.C.1.3.4: The student uses responsive listening skills, including paraphrasing, summarizing, and asking questions for elaboration and clarification.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. stays alert while listening.
2. makes eye contact while listening.
3. demonstrates appropriate body language while listening.
4. asks pertinent questions during activities such as interviews and discussions.
5. summarizes main points and supporting details orally and in writing.
Seventh
1. demonstrates effective listening behaviors for a variety of purposes (for example, using eye contact, note-making, appropriate posture).
2. asks appropriate, challenging questions for elaboration or clarification during activities such as interviews and discussion.
3. summarizes main points and supporting details orally or in writing.
4. uses information gained for a variety of purposes.

Eighth
1. demonstrates effective listening behaviors for a variety of purposes (for example, eye contact, note-making, appropriate posture).
2. asks appropriate, challenging questions for elaboration or clarification during activities such as interviews and discussions.
3. summarizes main points and supporting details orally or in writing.
4. uses information gained for a variety of purposes.

Standard 2: The student uses viewing strategies effectively.

Benchmark LA.C.2.3.1: The student determines main concept, supporting details, stereotypes, bias, and persuasion techniques in a nonprint message.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. summarizes main concept and lists supporting details in a nonprint message.
2. identifies biases, stereotypes, and persuasive techniques in a nonprint message.

Seventh
1. summarizes main concept and lists supporting details in a nonprint message.
2. identifies biases and stereotypes in a nonprint message.
3. responds to persuasive techniques and nonverbal cues in a nonprint message (for example, body language, silence).
Eighth
1. summarizes the main concept and lists supporting details in a nonprint message.
2. identifies biases and stereotypes in a nonprint message.
3. responds to persuasive techniques and nonverbal cues in a nonprint message (for example, body language, silence, juxtaposition).

Benchmark LA.C.2.3.2: The student uses movement, placement, juxtaposition, gestures, silent periods, facial expressions, and other nonverbal cues to convey meaning to an audience.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. demonstrates nonverbal cues to convey a message to an audience (for example, movement, gestures, facial expressions).

Seventh
1. demonstrates nonverbal cues to convey a message to an audience (for example, movement, gestures, facial expressions).

Eighth
1. demonstrates nonverbal cues to convey a message to an audience (for example, movement, gestures, facial expressions).

Standard 3: The student uses speaking strategies effectively.

Benchmark LA.C.3.3.1: The student understands how volume, stress, pacing, and pronunciation can positively or negatively affect an oral presentation.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. evaluates classroom presentations according to volume, stress, pacing, and pronunciation.
2. organizes and effectively delivers a speech using a basic beginning, middle, and end.

Seventh
1. evaluates classroom presentations according to volume, stress, pacing, and pronunciation.
2. uses a rating sheet to compare and contrast effective and ineffective presentations according to volume, stress, pacing, and pronunciation.
3. organizes and effectively delivers a speech using a beginning, middle, and end.

Eighth
1. evaluates classroom presentations according to volume, stress, pacing, and pronunciation.
2. uses a rating sheet to compare and contrast effective and ineffective presentations according to volume, stress, pacing, and pronunciation.
3. organizes and effectively delivers a speech using a beginning, middle, and end.

Benchmark LA.C.3.3.2: The student asks questions and makes comments and observations that reflect understanding and application of content, processes, and experiences.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. participates in classroom discussions using effective speaking strategies (for example, asking questions, making observations.
2. participates as a contributor and occasionally acts as a leader in a group discussion.

Seventh
1. participates in classroom discussions using effective speaking strategies (for example, asking questions, making observations.
2. alternates between roles of contributor and leader in a group discussion.

Eighth
1. participates in classroom discussions using effective speaking strategies (for example, asking questions, making observations.
2. alternates between roles of contributor and leader in a group discussion.
Benchmark LA.C.3.3.3: The student speaks for various occasions, audiences, and purposes, including conversations, discussions, projects, and informational, persuasive, or technical presentations.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. identifies the occasion, audience, and purpose for speaking.
2. uses appropriate grammar, word choice, and pacing.
3. uses language which is clear, audible, and suitable.
4. delivers a speech which appropriately addresses the audience.

Seventh
1. identifies the occasion, audience, and purpose for speaking.
2. uses appropriate grammar, word choice, and pacing.
3. uses language which is clear, audible and suitable.
4. delivers an effective informational, persuasive, or technical speech.

Eighth
1. identifies the occasion, audience, and purpose for speaking.
2. uses appropriate grammar, word choice, and pacing.
3. uses language that is clear, audible, and suitable.
4. delivers an effective informational, persuasive, or technical speech.
Strand D: Language
Standard 1: The student understands the nature of language.

Benchmark LA.D.1.3.1: The student understands that there are patterns and rules in semantic structure, symbols, sounds, and meanings conveyed through the English language.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. knows patterns and rules found in the English language (for example, grammar usage, word pronunciation).

Seventh
1. identifies patterns and rules found in the English language (for example, grammar usage, word pronunciation).

Eighth
1. identifies and uses the patterns and rules of the English language (for example, grammar usage, word pronunciation).

Benchmark LA.D.1.3.2: The student demonstrates an awareness that language and literature are primary means by which culture is transmitted.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. understands ways culture and time period influence a literary work.

Seventh
1. understands ways culture and time period influence a literary work.
2. compares and contrasts literature from different time periods and cultures to understand concepts and themes.

Eighth
1. understands ways culture and time period influence a literary work.
2. compares and contrasts literature from different time periods and cultures to understand concepts and themes.
Benchmark LA.D.1.3.3: The student demonstrates an awareness of the difference between the use of English in formal and informal settings.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. knows when to use formal and informal English based on audience and purpose.

Seventh
1. knows when to use formal and informal English based on audience and purpose.
2. transfers information gathered and recorded informally into a formal presentation.

Eighth
1. knows when to use informal and formal English based on audience and purpose.
2. transfers information gathered and recorded informally into a formal presentation.

Benchmark LA.D.1.3.4: The student understands that languages change over time.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. explores origin and historical development of words.
2. explores changes in sentence patterns over the years.
3. identifies slang, both past and present.

Seventh
1. explores the origin and historical development of words.
2. identifies slang, both past and present.
3. analyzes words and sentence patterns that have changed in meaning over the years.

Eighth
1. explores the origin and historical development of words and usage patterns.
2. identifies slang, both past and present.
3. analyzes words and sentence patterns that have changed in meaning over the years.
Standard 2: The student understands the power of language.

Benchmark LA.D.2.3.1: The student selects language that shapes reactions, perceptions, and beliefs.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. uses words and images that best express intended messages.

Seventh
1. uses words and images that best express intended messages.
2. uses language appropriate to purpose and audience.

Eighth
1. uses words and images that best express intended messages.
2. uses language appropriate to purpose and audience.

Benchmark LA.D.2.3.2: The student uses literary devices and techniques in the comprehension and creation of written, oral, and visual communications.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:
Sixth
1. uses figurative language techniques to create and comprehend meaning (for example, similes, metaphors, analogies, anecdotes, sensory language).

Seventh
1. uses figurative language techniques to create and comprehend meaning (for example, similes, metaphors, analogies, anecdotes, sensory language).

Eighth
1. uses figurative language techniques to create and comprehend meaning (for example, similes, metaphors, analogies, anecdotes, sensory language).
Benchmark LA.D.2.3.3: The student distinguishes between emotional and logical argument.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. recognizes emotional and logical arguments in written, oral, and visual communication.
2. understands differences between propaganda and logical reasoning strategies.

Seventh
1. distinguishes between emotional and logical arguments in written, oral and visual communication.
2. understands difference between propaganda and logical reasoning strategies.

Eighth
1. distinguishes between emotional and logical arguments in written, oral and visual communication.
2. understands differences between propaganda and logical reasoning strategies.

Benchmark LA.D.2.3.4: The student understands how the multiple media tools of graphics, pictures, color, motion, and music can enhance communication in television, film, radio, and advertising.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. understands ways the tools of graphics, pictures, color, motion, music, and computer technology affect communication across the media.

Seventh
1. selects communication tools that will enhance understanding.
2. knows ways the tools of graphics, pictures, color, motion, music, and computer technology affect communication across the media.

Eighth
1. selects communication tools that will enhance understanding.
2. understands ways the tools of graphics, pictures, color, motion, music, and computer technology affect communication across the media.

3. evaluates strengths and weaknesses of multimedia tools in presentations.

Benchmark LA.D.2.3.5: The student incorporates audiovisual aids in presentations.

Grade Level Expectations
The student:

Sixth
1. uses multimedia tools to enhance presentations.

Seventh
1. uses multimedia tools to enhance presentations.

Eighth
1. uses multimedia tools to enhance presentations.

Benchmark LA.D.2.3.6: The student understands specific ways that mass media can potentially enhance or manipulate information.
