

Chapter XI: "Into the Interior"
The Outdoor Girls in Florida

The first impression the girls have of Hank and his men is a negative one. What are all the details that lead to this impression?

Hank and his men help them to escape the sand bar. What other evidence shows them to be unlike the men the girls first assumed them to be?