Ch. 17: "Ozma and Dorothy" The Tin Woodman of Oz

Directions: Compare and contrast life in Oz and real life. On another paper, discuss the problems with a world where no one grows older.

Life In Oz

Real Life

The form consists of a large rounded rectangular frame. Inside this frame, there are two vertical lines that divide the space into three columns. The leftmost column is labeled 'Life In Oz', the middle column is unlabeled, and the rightmost column is labeled 'Real Life'. The entire writing area is empty, intended for the student to compare and contrast life in Oz and real life.
