Frankenstein - Chapter 18

In this chapter, Victor reveals his feelings about the monster and his request. He says, "My promise fulfilled, the monster would depart forever. Or (so my fond fancy imaged) some accident might meanwhile occur to destroy him and put an end to my slavery forever."

Write an essay in which you argue either for or against Victor's attitude and suggestion that he is enslaved by the monster and his request. Use examples from the text to support your argument.
