

Chapter VII: "A Frosty Morning in Florida" from Florida Trails

The author makes several allusions in this chapter, related to his notion that things are enchanted on this morning. Choose one of the allusions he makes to research. Use the library or the internet to find out more about his references. Then, write a one-page analysis to explain why the allusion works in the context of the chapter.

Name _____ Date _____

Chapter VII: "A Frosty Morning in Florida" from Florida Trails

Choose a paragraph from the reading to work with. In that paragraph, highlight all the words that convey imagery. Use those words to write your own sentences about Florida.

Name _____ Date _____

Chapter VII: "A Frosty Morning in Florida" from Florida Trails

Have you encountered any of the animals described in this chapter? If so, write a paragraph with your own description of the animal. Try to include details that appeal to several senses. If you haven't seen these animals, choose another animal to describe.