

Name _____ Date _____

“Rubezahl”

Rubezahl can only get what he wants through deception. The princess can only see those she loves through a false image created by magic. Both find that these deceptions are not enough to satisfy their desires.

Why is “true” love so important? What about these false emotions makes them less satisfying? Use the story to give examples.