

Name: _____ Date: _____

"At the Sea Side"
A Child's Garden of Verses

Directions: The child in this poem uses "like a cup" to compare the hole in the sand to a drinking container. When two things are compared using like or as, it is called a simile. Write about a time when you played in the sand or water, or make up a story. Try to use a simile to describe or compare something in your story.