

Name _____ Date _____

“The Witnesses”

The poet personifies the “bones of Slaves,” allowing them to speak out as “witnesses.” Why is this an effective use of literary device? What do these bones represent? What is the importance of a witness? Write an essay that considers these questions as you explain how the poet has presented his message through this poem by making use of literary devices.