“How to Find Out a True Friend”

At the end of this story, St. James visits the young prince with the offer of healing for his friend – dependent upon the young prince’s obedience to St. James’ request. Imagine that you are the young prince’s wife. Do you go along with St. James’ request or do you try to convince your husband otherwise?

Write the dialogue you would have with your husband in response to St. James’ request.
