

This map shows approximately the extent of the German advance to Sept. 6, 1914. The heavy lines with arrow tips show the general movement of the German advance; the heavy dotted lines, routes of parallel, but lesser columns. All territory between the line touching Antwerp, Ghent, Bruges and Amiens and the main line was filled with German troops. Raiding parties also reached Ostend and Boulogne

German Advance, 1914

Willis J. Abbot, Pictorial History of the World War (New York, NY: Leslie-Judge Company, 1919)

Downloaded from Maps ETC, on the web at <http://etc.usf.edu/maps> [map #03000]