“Ch 1: The Start”

The Go Ahead Boys and the Racing Motor-Boat

Directions: Complete the questions and sentences below.

1. I noticed these words that describe the setting … ______
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

2. The setting was important to the chapter because __________
   ______________________________________________________________________

3. Things about the setting that I can use in my own writing are, _
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

4. In my opinion the most interesting character is ___________ because ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

5. The main character’s problem in this chapter __________
   ______________________________________________________________________

6. I think this book is (is not) going to be interesting because____
   ______________________________________________________________________

(Continue on the back if more room is needed.)