Directions: Can people change? Divide a piece of paper in half. On one half write the reasons you believe people can change. On the other half write the reasons you believe people cannot change. Now write a report about your views pro and con. End with your conclusion. Do you believe people can change?