“Philemon and Baucis”

Materials Needed: Copy of the story
    Pencil
    Sticky notes
    Paper

Directions: Read the story. Come up with and write down questions about the vocabulary, why people did what they did, and so on. Place a sticky note with a question mark on the text where the question originates. Explain what you think the author’s message is.

Hold a discussion with someone who has also read the story. Trade questions and answer one another’s questions. Or, write explanations to answer your own questions.
