Adventure 9: The Final Problem
Memoirs of Sherlock Holmes

Directions: Answer these questions and complete these sentences.

1. I think one of the most important ideas from this story is . . .

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

2. This part of the story surprised me __________________________

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

3. I noticed these things happened . . .

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

4. The author “hooked” me when ____________________________

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

5. Things that are important about the ending ________________

   __________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________

Illustrate an event on the back of this paper.