

Tests

- Can typically measure knowledge or skills of training participant as in pre-post test of knowledge
- May be standardized, criterion referenced or teacher made if used to judge student performance
- If used to measure student learning, must be careful to link the specific staff development desired outcome to practices applied in the classroom