

Using Technology to Enhance Learning: Body Length

- In this lesson students measured their arm, leg, head, foot, hand and then their total height.
- Together, they entered the data into a spreadsheet and created a graph.
- Then they wrote about what they found and how the length of the body parts related to the height.