

Warm-Ups: Problem of the Week

- Problems of the Week are useful for preparing students for the performance tasks on the FCAT.
- Students are required to write their solutions and explain their strategies.
- This allows students to understand how to solve the problem.
- Students struggling with the problem can talk through their strategies and find ways to be successful.