

“JOHNNY SPEAKS”

BY

PAUL LAURENCE DUNBAR

The sand–man he’s a jolly old fellow,
His face is kind and his voice is mellow,
But he makes your eyelids as heavy as lead,
And then you got to go off to bed;
I don’t think I like the sand–man.

But I’ve been playing this livelong day;
It does make a fellow so tired to play!
Oh, my, I’m a–yawning right here before ma,
I’m the sleepest fellow that ever you saw.
I think I do like the sand–man.
