

“To J.Q.”

BY

PAUL LAURENCE DUNBAR

What are the things that make life bright?

A star gleam in the night.

What hearts us for the coming fray?

The dawn tints of the day.

What helps to speed the weary mile?

A brother's friendly smile.

What turns o' gold the evening gray?

A flower beside the way.