“Dr. Philemon Pipp, the Patient Medicine Man”

The children were warned by the Toyman about the peddler and his wares, but the story says they “forgot what was most important.”

Think about a time when you were warned about someone or something that wasn't good for you. If that's never happened to you, imagine it or think about someone you know who was in that situation.

Write about a time when you were warned about someone or something that wasn't good for you, but you didn't listen, and what happened to you as a result. What lesson did you learn?
