Frankenstein - Chapter 22

Victor writes to Elizabeth, informing her that, “I have one secret, Elizabeth, a dreadful one; when revealed to you, it will chill your frame with horror, and then, far from being surprised at my misery, you will only wonder that I survive what I have endured. I will confide this tale of misery and terror to you the day after our marriage shall take place, for, my sweet cousin, there must be perfect confidence between us. But until then, I conjure you, do not mention or allude to it. This I most earnestly entreat, and I know you will comply.”

Imagine you are Elizabeth. Write a journal entry in which you react to this news from your future husband.

Why do you think she agrees to marry him, knowing that he has such a secret?
