

Chapter IV: "Birds of a Morning" from Florida Trails

How many varieties of Florida wildlife does the author speak about in this chapter? Use highlighting to mark the different things he speaks about as you read.

How does he organize his writing? What are the different ways you can think of to organize writing?

Name _____ Date _____

Chapter IV: "Birds of a Morning" from Florida Trails

The author uses comparison to allow the reader to understand the behavior of the various animals he sees in the course of the chapter. Choose an animal that you feel familiar with. Write a description of the animal's behavior, using comparison in the same way the author does.

Chapter IV: "Birds of a Morning" from Florida Trails

In the first column, copy down passages from the reading that you find interesting/ important/ appealing. In the second column, react to the text by clarifying meaning, questioning, making connections, or paraphrasing.

Text	Reaction