

Chapter XVII: Moonlight and March Mornings from Florida Trails

There is a liberal use of literary devices, including personification, alliteration, and simile in this chapter. What is the overall effect of using these techniques? Explain your answer, using examples from the text.