

Chapter 6: "On the Upper St. John's" from A Florida Sketch-Book

In this chapter, the author expresses his distaste for the city of Sanford, which he finds to be, "a discouragement." What evidence does he provide in the chapter to support this assessment of the city?

Highlight areas that support this opinion as you read. When you have completed the chapter, use the evidence to make your own assessment. Is the city as disappointing as the author believes, or do you hold a different view? Use evidence from the text to support your answer.