

Chapter XIX: Zenobia's Drawing-Room
The Blithedale Romance

Divide a sheet of paper into three columns. In the first, record words that show how Coverdale sees himself. In the second, record words that show how other characters view him. In the third, list words that show how you, as the reader, view him. For each word you list, explain why you chose that word, using examples from the text.