

Name _____ Date _____

“Baby Caterpillar”

In the story, the elements of nature are personified, or given human characteristics and personalities. Write your own short story about a non-human process, using personification to create characters out of the elements of the process you choose.