

Name: _____ Date: _____

“The Raindrops”

Reread this short story. Think about how the author tells the story; what literary techniques he uses. Then address the following on a separate sheet of paper:

-What is the author describing? How do you know? Use evidence from the story to support your response.

-Choose a historical, scientific, or natural event. Write a similar story, using literary techniques, to explain that event.