A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court

Directions: After reading Chapter VIII The Boss draw a sequence of events chart to illustrate what happens in the chapter. Now, answer the question at the bottom of the page.

Question: In this chapter, the Yankee gains his official title from the people but finds the King to be likeable but not respectable. Write about a time where you were in contact with someone you liked but could not respect his/her position of authority or occupation. How were you able to overcome your opinion of him/her?
