Chapter XVIII

Directions: After reading write a summary on what happens in the text. Then complete the activity below.

Activity: In this chapter, a prisoner confesses to the Yankee but won't to Le Fay in fear of having his worldly possessions taken away from his wife and child. Describe the crime to which the prisoner confesses. Keeping the above in mind, write about a time when you had done something wrong but feared confessing because of the consequences. How did everything turn out? What was at stake? Explain any regrets or relief you may have regarding this situation and how it panned out.
