A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court
Chapter XXXII

Directions: After reading draw a character map of Dowley in the space provided below. Then answer the question at the bottom of the page.

Question: In this chapter, the Yankee wounds Dowley's pride when he pays for a bill in its entirety and then leaves a sizeable tip without bragging of his financial wealth. Compare and contrast the actions of Dowley and the Yankee in this chapter. In your opinion, why would the Yankee's actions cause Dowley to feel wounded?
