Activity Title: Character Analysis

Description: The students will work with a partner to describe how the characters have become intertwined throughout the book.

Subject: Reading and Language Arts

Skill: Character Analysis

Behavioral Objective:

- The student will describe how the characters have become intertwined throughout the book.

Materials:

- The Count of Monte Cristo, chapter 44 available in audio and print form at <http://etc.usf.edu/lit2go/>
- Paper and pencils

Procedures:

Read the chapter with the students, or have them read it on their own. Discuss with the students the main idea of the chapter. Next, have the students work with a partner to describe how and why the characters have become intertwined throughout the book. When the students have finished working, have a whole class discussion reviewing their answers.
