

Name _____ Date _____

“Rodman the Keeper”

Each of the four major characters in the story represents an important aspect of the effects of the war. How does each fit into the category that they represent? How do they go against the stereotypical notions of who they should be? Use examples from the text to support your answer.