Reading Log – “The Story of Prince Ahmed and the Fairy”

As you read, keep a record book for what you have read. Your log should include the following:

1. Read the title and the first paragraph. Make several predictions about the story based on the title. What do you think it will be about? What will happen?
2. Keep track of unfamiliar vocabulary words. Try to infer the meaning based on context, then look up the definition in the dictionary.
3. Summarize the story. Include main points and important details.
4. Keep track of the characters, and their connections to one another.
5. Make a list of any questions you have, to be used during class discussions.
