

Chapter 20

The Professor

This new feeling of love motivates William to seek out a means of living that he never expressed much desire for in the past. Think of a time when a strong emotion inspired you to make changes in your life. What feeling caused the change? Was it a positive or a negative experience? Write an essay which explains the effect that strong emotion can have in shaping a life. Use details from the text as support.