“Farewell To the Farm”
A Child’s Garden of Verses

Directions: Have you ever had to move to a new state, city, home, bedroom, or bed? Were you happy or sad? Did you want your new place, or did you feel pushed out of your personal space whether or not you wanted to go? Did you have to say good-bye to your friends, your school, any of your toys? Did you need a moving van, truck, or just some strong workers? How did you feel about making that change? Write about your feelings and ideas at the time.
