

Name: _____

Date: _____

“The Lion In Bad Company”

Directions: As we are growing up our parents give us advice. We also choose friends. We sometimes let them tell us what to do. Think about a time when you went along with a friend and did something your parents told you not to do. Write a story about what happened. If you prefer, write a fable about a friend and making a poor choice. Be sure your fable teaches the reader a lesson about making good choices.