

"Christian Huygens"
A Short Account of the History of Mathematics

The passage refers to his life as "uneventful." What events are presented as important?

How would someone write about the events of your life? Use the passage as a model to write a short summary of your own life and accomplishments.