

Name: _____ Date: _____

"The Man and the Wood"

Directions: Make a chart or notes of what the trees might have observed, thought, and chosen when the Man came into the Wood. The moral of this story might be: "Do not give your enemies what they need to destroy you." Explain what you think the Trees should have done and why. Write a new ending for the story based upon your notes and observations.