

Name: _____ Date: _____

"The Raven and the Swan"

Directions: The Raven made a choice that cost him his life. First he desired something that was not right for him. Next he made a poor choice when he left the source of his food. Have you ever wanted something and made a poor choice in order to have what you wanted? If so, tell about your experience.

The Raven wanted white feathers. Write a fable in which the Raven is able to achieve his goal by making good choices.